Our Mission

The purpose of Pretrial Services is to investigate and assess the potential risk of flight and/or danger to the community of defendants entering the federal system. Upon the release of a defendant to pretrial supervision, officers monitor compliance with the conditions of release as set by the Court, notify the Court and U.S. Attorney of alleged violations, make recommendations regarding release or detention following violation conduct, and control risk of nonappearance and community safety.