The Brown Bag CLE Series Returns!

Nuts & Bolts: How to Conduct an Effective Initial Bankruptcy Consultation for Individuals

Date: Friday, November 1, 2024

Time: Noon (MST)

Location: Zoom (link below)

The District of Idaho and the Idaho State Bar's Commercial Law and Bankruptcy Section invite you to join attorney Alexandra Caval, a consumer bankruptcy attorney in private practice, for a nuts & bolts presentation on how to conduct an effective initial consultation with potential individual debtors seeking bankruptcy relief. Learn the questions to ask potential clients to identify problematic issues early on and prevent them from turning into big problems in a bankruptcy case. Ms. Caval will also share helpful tips and strategies to help make your next client consultation productive for both you and your potential client.
