"MA" - indicates a violation which may be an optional appearance violation notice with a collateral or a mandatory appearance violation notice at the officer's discretion.

Mandatory Appearance violation notices are issued only for cases involving unusual circumstances, such as a repeat violator for which the standard collateral is clearly inadequate, a continuing offense which has not been corrected, an offense in which restitution is due, or a particularly serious violation.

All violations without "MA" must be optional appearance violation notices with collateral unless, after a conference with an agency's assigned AUSA, a decision is made to file an Information.
