Live 60 Miles or more one-way from Coeur d'Alene

Morning Report Time: If your scheduled report time for Jury Selection is in the morning and you live 60 miles or more one-way from Coeur d'Alene, you are authorized to travel in the day before. You may stay in a hotel or stay with family and/or friends. If staying in a hotel, you are to check out of your hotel the morning of jury selection and bring the hotel receipt with you.

If Traveling In: We encourage you to bring enough clothing for the week in case you are selected to serve as a juror on a trial.

Afternoon Report Time: If your scheduled report time is in the afternoon, you are not authorized to travel in the day before. If you are selected as a juror, you will be authorized to stay in a hotel or with family and/or friends during the duration of the trial. We encourage you to bring enough clothing for the week in case you are selected to serve as a juror on a trial.
